

HEALTH IN ORGANIZATIONS, ORGANIZATION OF HEALTH

An ISPSO European Regional Meeting

28–30 March 2025

Amsterdam, Netherlands

HOW HEALTHY IS THE ORGANIZATION YOU WORK FOR?

What does it mean for an organization to be healthy or unhealthy? Are unhealthy organizations defined by burnout, absenteeism, or poor lifestyles? Is an organization unhealthy if it loses focus on its primary task? What role do external forces—world conflicts, climate change, pandemics, and polarizing politics—play in shaping organizational health?

EXPLORING QUESTIONS AND APPROACHES

At the European Regional Meeting, we will analyze and explore:

- The distinctions between healthy and unhealthy organizations.
- Conscious and unconscious factors influencing organizational health.
- Interventions such as free fruit, massages, and sports programs — are they genuine solutions or defenses masking deeper issues?
- Organizational efforts to maintain and restore health.
- Psychoanalytic coaching and consultancy methods that improve organizational well-being.
